

COLIN LEWIS

I am a UX Engineer. In this role I solve digital problems through the combination of over two decades experience as a designer, front end developer, illustrator, and writer. I work with Design Thinking to prototype and build websites that focus on user needs and make clients happy.

EXPERIENCE

Developer, Codeable

Remote/Denmark · 2019–present

Codeable is an exclusive freelancer platform that connects businesses with premium WordPress developers.

My responsibilities as freelance designer and developer span the entire range of a web project: ideation, strategy and design, UX research and testing, prototyping, custom development, client education, and more.

Designer, Unlikely Objects AB

Karlskrona, Sweden · 2017–present

Unlikely Objects is a storytelling studio that produces digital experiences and unusual books that combine literature, film, interactivity and delight.

Associate, Hoxby

Remote/UK · 2019–2020

Hoxby is an exclusive group that provides custom, hand-picked teams of remote freelancers to large-scale and scale-up clients.
